

LSGI Orientation Day 2018

LSGI Orientation was held on 27 August 2018 for all new undergraduate students of LSGI. Prof. John Wen-zhong SHI, Head and Chair Professor of LSGI, welcomed the students and introduced them to the academic and supporting staff of the department. After which, he gave introduction of department's academic programmes and state-of-art research performance.

Two LSGI student representatives, Samuel Yu (Yr 4 BSc) and Angus Chow (Yr2 HD) gave sharing to freshmen on their study at LSGI. In which, their useful and warm suggestions on study and university experience impressed students very much.

Followings were introductions by representatives of OGUR, Library, Mental Wellness of the University Health Service and CENTRE STAR on useful information including study, research information, health support for their U-life. Students also had a chance to meet with their respective programme leaders and academic advisors in break-out sessions at the end of the Orientation.

It was a great start to the academic year for our LSGI freshmen.
