

LSGI Distinguished Lecture on
“Big data and location-based social media: Implications for GIScience and cartographic research & education” by Prof. Daniel Sui

It was our pleasure to invite Prof. Daniel Sui, the Ohio State University in USA to be our speaker in the LSGI Distinguished Lecture Series on 20 October 2015. In the lecture, he presented an overview of the opportunities and challenges of this new trend for GIScience and cartographic research & education and exchanged ideas with LSGI staff and students.

Prof. Sui is currently an Arts and Sciences Distinguished Professor and Professor of Geography, Public Affairs, Public Health, and Urban/Regional Planning at the Ohio State University (OSU). He is also the editor-in-chief for GeoJournal.

More information about Prof. Sui's current research can be found at:
