

Research Assistant/associate in multi-scale data processing

One research assistant/associate position is available in the Department of Land Surveying and Geo-Informatics, for a period of 2-3 months, working on the development of methodology for multi-scale representation of spatial data such as land cover and image data. Research experience in related areas is required. Please contact Prof Li Zhilin (lszlli@polyu.edu.hk) for detail.