

LSGI Distinguished Lecture Series

“What is Web Mapping anyway?”

Overview

It was our pleasure to invite Prof. Bert Veenendaal, Professor - Spatial Information, Department of Spatial Sciences, Curtin University, Australia, to deliver a seminar of the LSGI Distinguished Lecture Series on 25 September 2017.

Biography

Bert Veenendaal is Professor in geographic information science and Director of the Spatial Research Hub at Curtin University in Perth, Western Australia. He has been involved in teaching and research in GIScience for over 30 years. He was instrumental in establishing the GIScience program at Curtin University, including the world's first Bachelor of Science (GIS) program in 1992. He served as Head of Department of Spatial Sciences at Curtin University for over 10 years, tripling the size of the department in that period, establishing the Landgate Spatial Sciences Studios, and most recently initiating the Spatial Research Hub.
